Natal Interpretation

House #1 (Sagittarius-Capricorn)

Identity Zone

Rising in Sagittarius

RISING= Projection - How others perceive me - Personality - What attracts me.

SAGITTARIUS = Free - Adventurer - Idealist - Optimist - Wise - Cult - Spontaneous- Honest - Exaggerated - Petulant - Scandalous.

- Usually we feel more identified by our rising sign than our solar sign... that's why sometimes we read our horoscope and don't feel identified by it that much.
- A Sagittarius Ascendant endows you with optimism, enthusiasm for life, good humour and tolerance for others. You have an honourable, open-minded, generous, kind, sympathetic, truthful and just disposition. With a sound sense of dignity you ensure neatness, orderliness and precision both in person and surroundings. You do not tolerate any breach of etiquette and insist on correctness for any social occasion. You have a versatile mind with the natural ability for higher learning - particularly in subjects such as philosophy, sociology, religion, theology or law. You are a lover of freedom and independence; restless for activity - out-door sports, exercises and travel are important to your well-being. On occasion, you can be somewhat impulsive, fiery and a little harsh and abrupt with people, but usually only when offended. Qualities lacking to some degree, which may be found in your partner are versatility of mind and a non-conformist / non-dogmatic approach to life.

Neptune in Capricorn

NEPTUNE = Inspiration - Imagination - Intuition - Ideals - Unconditional Love - Spirituality - Compassion - Sacrifices - Nebulosity - Fantasies - Escapism - Cosmic Consciousness - Sensitivity - Humanity.

CAPRICORN = Responsible - Structured - Practical - Workaholic - Serious - Conservative - Prudent - Persevering - Laborious - Precavid - Inhibited - Incredulous - Suspicious - Distrust - Cold.

- Neptune is said to be “falling” in this position. When a planet is “falling” means it’s in the opposite sign of that in which it is exalted -where it expresses all its potential-therefore is really hard for it to express its energy in the best way possible.
- The practical is the ideal....form follows function. Without a doubt, it is a position that is very beneficial to dedicate yourself to the artistic world, in any of its many possible facets. This is because Neptune in the 1st house favors inspiration and talent for music and also for lyrics.
- However, this inspiration and ease of intuition can lead natives to distance themselves from reality and stop objectively perceiving the simplest things. It is even possible that they confuse their own identity or perceive its limits blurred.
- In the case in which Neptune is afflicted in the 1st house, the natives can suffer the fall into vices of any kind whose purpose is the search for pleasure and escape from a reality that does not interest them.

Mars in Capricorn

MARS = Action - Struggle - Trust - Libido - Energy - My masculine part - The Initiator - Will Power - Anger - Courage - Drive - Assertiveness - Reaction - Motivation - Pursue - Defend - Undertake.

CAPRICORN = Responsible - Structured - Practical - Workaholic - Serious - Conservative - Prudent - Persevering - Laborious - Precavid - Inhibited - Incredulous - Suspicious - Distrust - Cold.

- Mars is said to be “exalted” when in this position.
- Both Mars and Saturn (Capricorn ruler) are ambitious, a lot. However, they differ not only in modus operandi but also in terms of the objectives to be achieved. Mars is spontaneous, sexual, warlike, angry, impulsive desire. His is fire. Saturn is thoughtful, wise, patient, mature, realistic. His rod is higher, and therefore further. The red planet takes care of our immediate needs, it keeps us struggling more than anything in the present. Instead, the master of time surrounds us with his rings, limiting, putting a thousand obstacles on us, and another thousand just in case, in order to mold us into a resistant, disciplined character.
- Those who were born with this natal Mars know that everything costs them, from childhood, more than the rest. That they must take charge of their affairs, do everything themselves. Start from the bottom and climb with patience, without giving many signals to anyone, without respite and following the chosen strategy to the letter. For all this, your actions and projects improve over time, like wine.

- You are a hard worker and are driven to accomplish, manage, and be in control. You like to manipulate a situation for its own benefit and would make a natural supervisor. You have an inner urge for order and organisation and a great sense of responsibility. You are competent, ambitious, and with a long term vision.

Ruler of Aquarius = Uranus in Sagittarius - House 1 = Rising

Uranus influencing from Sagittarius in the Empty House # 2 translates as:

Someone who values and wants to help humanity as a whole, likes to travel and learn from new environments. You could be unruly and have a rebellious nature, and this can lead to legal trouble. Uranus is the planet of surprises and the unexpected...in the 2nd house tends to cause the native to not find stability in economic matters. This is due to the fact that this position favors continual unforeseen situations that alter their economic situation. Your greatest ambition is to have an independent economy and thus be able to free yourself from social ties. For you money is only worth to be able to achieve your freedom.

House #3 (Piscis-Aries)

- You are a real humanitarian, with a genuine interest in social work and able to sacrifice yourself to help others. You have a love of what's beyond the surface: religion, psychology, and mysticism. Intuitive, sensitive to emotions, and sympathetic, you are always giving of yourself and would make an excellent counsellor. You are farsighted, future-oriented and expansive.
- Jupiter in the 3rd house favors spoken and written communication, through which the native will be fulfilled and will achieve success with it. House #4 (Aries-Taurus)

ARIES = Bold - Impulsive - With Initiative - Pioneer - Entrepreneur -Active - Impatient - Iracund - Rude - Individualist - Wild - Rebel - Irrational - Egocentric.

- You have a sharp tongue and a quick wit. You speak first, then think afterwards. Not subtle or complex, you are direct, simple, and to the point. This space could also be chosen as the workplace, installing your work and professional or work chores in the same house. If they work abroad, they will be methodical, responsible and assiduous people who will never miss their job and will fulfill what they promise.

North Node in Aries

NODE NORTH = Dharma - What the universe wants to teach me - What I have come to learn - My path of Growth and Evolution - Purpose.

ARIES = Bold - Impulsive - With Initiative - Pioneer - Entrepreneur -Active - Impatient - Iracund - Rude - Individualist - Wild - Rebel - Irrational - Egocentric.

- The nodes of the Moon are two abstract points formed by the crossing of the Moon with the ecliptic created by the Sun when viewed from Earth. We call these points the north node and the south node.
- Imagine the north node as the recipient of the wisdom of the south node. The sign where it is placed is ready to take an evolutionary leap, and through that expansion, it will provide the south node with a platform that will help it fulfill its destiny. In this sense, the dynamics of the nodes is constant, like evolution itself.
- You have a self assertive and progressive nature and must bring your personality to its full development (you must take care of your basic needs before you can give and open up to others.) You must develop independence since too much emphasis is placed on leaning on others and letting them run your life. You must make your own decisions, right or wrong, and then stand by your convictions. Growth comes through self expression and experience.
- The challenge of the north node in Aries is to affirm your identity. It prompts us to go for what we want. It seduces us with activities in which we have to take the initiative. For the node in Libra this is disturbing. The energy of Aries is so overshadowed by that of Libra that we do not understand what to do with it.
- The nodes allow us to understand how the opposites complement each other. The living areas where this energy will be used depends on the houses in which the nodes are located.

you gentle, steady, and, for the most part, kind. You take things in and provide an environment to bring them forth. You make "fertile" your field.

- The Sun in the 5th house is a position that enhances the development of the native vocation, either in the field of professional careers or in the field of the arts.

Venus in Taurus

TAURUS = Simple - Materialistic - Conservative - Patient - Tenacious - Obstinate - Hedonist - Greedy - Partial - Slow - Responsible - Practical - Realistic - Resistant - Jealous.

- Those with Venus in the 5th house will be drawn to all kinds of entertainment. In this house, the natives of Venus are playful. Music, cinema, theater, parties. It encourages a life full of pleasures. However, at the moment when the planet is afflicted, the person can become a libertine and throw himself into crazy fun, in a disproportionate way.

House #10 (Libra-Scorpio)

Success, Career, Status and Public Life Zone

South Node in Libra

SOUTH NODE = Karma - Uncomfortable Comfort - My past - What I must let go of - Attachments - Overcome.

LIBRA = Harmonic - Just - Empatic - Estetic - Balanced - Moderated - Elegant - Refined - Impartial - Pacifist - Indecisive - Banal - Insecure - Unstable.

- The south node represents innate behavior patterns, personal attitudes that are expressed naturally. I see them as doors to the past, since the south node connects us with characteristics of our ancestors that come to life in our present incarnation.
- Our soul is wise... It will always guide us towards the integration of the totality of our being. That is why it will attract into our life situations in which we will have to go out to battle not to lose something that belongs to us in its own right. Libra is very sensitive to injustice.
- With the south node in Libra, we have learned to reach agreements, to listen to the other, to be interested in their needs, even to the detriment of ours. With this configuration, we can have problems moving towards our goals because, if we communicate our personal needs to the other, we fear that we will stop being accepted and be alone.

House #11 (Scorpio)

Groups, Friendships and Social Ideals Zone

Pluto Retrograde in Scorpio

PLUTO = Inevitable Transformation - Personal Power - Loss - Destruction - Regeneration - Intensity - Change - Transmutation - Rebirth.

RETRO = When a planet is retrograde, it invites you to stop looking for what the planet represents on the outside to work on the inside.

SCORPIO = Profund - Mysterious - Penetrating - Magnetic - Intense - Sexual - Perverse - Manipulator - Sagacious - Reserved - Distrust - Jealousy - Resentment - Hate - Destruction - Powerful - Transformation - Regeneration.

- You tear through appearances in an effort to get beneath, behind, and at the heart or essence. You may find psychology, initiation, and mysticism, and the occult of great interest. Intense personal change and inner growth are lifelong habits.
- Pluto in the 11th house is a transit that leads its natives to maintain very intense emotional relationships, either with their partners or with their friends. They will not be people with a large number of friends, but the ones they have will be faithful and for life.
- The natives are introverted and reserved people who will only give their trust to someone only when they are safe and some time has passed to know for sure their way of acting. Intense affective unions will then emerge that will consolidate over time.
- They also tend to be passionate, irresistible and often far from what a normal, more rational relationship means. This type of relationship is very possible that some time later they break violently and the former lovers end up hating each other.

Moon in Scorpio

MOON = Emotions - Unconscious - Needs - Security - My way of loving - Capacity to receive love - Nutrition - Fertility - Intuition - Unconscious - Feeling - Nourishing - Caring - The Mother.

SCORPIO = Profund - Mysterious - Penetrating - Magnetic - Intense - Sexual - Perverse - Manipulator - Sagacious - Reserved - Distrust - Jealousy - Resentment - Hate - Destruction - Powerful - Transformation - Regeneration.

- The Moon in Scorpio is traditionally “falling”. This means that it is in the opposite sign to its exaltation - Taurus - which is considered the best position (next to its domicile in Cancer) for the Moon.
- The Moon in Scorpio is nourished by the exact opposite energy of nourishment: power, crisis, transformation, fear, domination, extortion, loss, anguish, intensity, regeneration, sexuality, displeasure, dissatisfaction. Let us also add that the rulers are also different for each sign: the Moon in Taurus, has Venus as its dispositor, beneficial and peaceful; the Moon in Scorpio to the violent Mars and the intense Pluto.
- Financial issues also have a special affinity with this Moon...also sex. With the Moon in Scorpio the intensity passes through what is not said, through those suggested depths. Emotional flows that feed on accumulated silences. Underground passions that unleash violent tides.
- The possibility that the Moon in Scorpio offers us is to connect with our emotional demands and regenerate them. It is a good opportunity to renew or revise your trust in something or someone. All situations that involve fusion, intensity and take us to extremes are feasible. It is better to channel this energy into positive activities, because with Scorpio there is a danger of self-destructive attitudes.
- With the Moon in the 11th house you may channel all that power of transformation and regeneration to the groups, charities and social ideals you believe in as well with your group of friends.
- The Moon was opposed to the Sun the day you were borned it means you were born on a Full Moon . Generally, people who were born on a Full Moon are more attuned to rhythms - both in the natural world and internally. You can become more successful if you harness your natural ability to ride the highs and lows of your emotional cycle, and leverage it to live a life balanced in between the extremes of your personality.

- Saturn in the 1st house leads its natives to recollection, isolating from the rest in a melancholic and pessimistic vision of life. It also generates a serious, reserved way of acting, where what is preferred is to play a secondary role in any situation.
- Have a very cerebral personality in which reason is always above what the heart says. Capable of controlling instincts and passions, sometimes even drastically repressing them.

Uranus Retrograde in Sagittarius

URANUS = Individuality - Surprises - Radical Changes - Rebellion - Genius - Revolution - Emancipation - Internet - Authenticity - Innovation - Eccentricity.

RETRO = When a planet is retrograde, it invites you to stop looking for what the planet represents on the outside to work on the inside.

SAGITTARIUS = Free - Adventurer - Idealist - Optimist - Wise - Cult - Spontaneous - Honest - Exaggerated - Petulant - Scandalous.

- ¡An original optimist! You have new philosophies, ideas for the future and new approaches to travel and exploration (of all kinds). Long journeys interest you. You may startle others with your direct conversations, always getting right to the point. You enjoy being alone, free, on the move, and spend periods living outside of your homeland.
- The Uranus in Sagittarius generation values the pursuit of religious knowledge and truth. The perceptions that the planet Uranus brings to this position are of new and alternative ways of understanding, worshiping and seeking knowledge. People with Uranus in Sagittarius are not happy with how things have always been done in these areas. They bring a new approach or a reform of outdated methods to the areas of education, philosophy, and religion. In fact, your concern is within any area that you seek a higher truth or collective meaning. Often this search can lead to an interest in foreign cultures and alternative ways of life. Above all they value their freedom to seek and practice these higher truths.

Natal Sun Opposition Transiting Mercury

- Careful with what you say... Mercury is the planet of communication which is transiting Scorpio - a sign which tends to be intense- and your natal sun in Taurus -which tends to be stubborn- is all about expressing yourself authentically. However, your comments & opinions may clash with those of others creating contrast or opposed points of view. Don't get too involved, try to avoid conflict and find a common ground and remember there's always some truth from both sides.

Natal Mercury Conjunct Transiting Moon

- In a conjunction the energies of both planets combine and become stronger together. The moon represents needs and mercury rules communications & transportations, there could be an urgent need to get back to the roots, contact family or even travel to see them since both planets join in the 4th house (home & family) in Aries is a sign which tends to be impatient. The Moon transiting Aries can give you that impulse to get things done or go on an adventure.

Natal Saturn Sextile Transiting Sun

- You may tackle tasks that require real discipline or organisation right now your energy will be really practical and you should make the most of it by finishing things or dedicating yourself to higher knowledge, mystic or spiritual realms since your Natal Saturn is in Sagittarius located in the 12 House -which represents endings- and you must know that there is a really spiritual side to both Sagittarius and the 12 house.

Natal Mars Square Transiting Moon

- The Transiting Moon in Aries can be a really defensive and explosive one, and even more when it's squared to some other planet. You may expect conflicts, since it is creating a 90° connection with your Natal Mars. Mars is the ruler of Aries so they got the same impulsive and reactive energy. Your Natal Mars is located in Capricorn on your 1st house which is your Rising sign and represents your appearance and how you project to the world.

You tend to act like Capricorns and do what needs to be done. You got a real sense of responsibility and could experience a feeling of irritation or frustration because what needs to be done (Moon in Aries energy) is not what you might want to be doing (Mars in Capricorn energy).
